

mgetz27@comcast.net

From: mgetz27@comcast.net
Sent: Sunday, January 29, 2023 3:13 PM
To: 'tibrotherhood@googlegroups.com'; 'TI-Wide-Brotherhood@googlegroups.com'
Subject: Brotherhood Scholar in Residence Weekend Calendar

Temple Israel Brotherhood 12th Annual Robert Zeitsiff Scholar in Residence Weekend

Saturday Feb. 18th and Sunday Feb. 19th, 2023

Saturday – Shabbat Services D'Var

Special Concert Saturday Night!*

Sunday – 10am Scholar in Residence Breakfast Talk

Our Scholar in Residence Rabbi Menachem Creditor

Menachem Creditor served as Assistant Rabbi at Temple Israel from 2002 to 2007 and as Rabbi of Congregation Netivot Shalom in Berkeley, California from 2007 to 2018. In 2018 he was named Pearl and Ira Meyer Scholar-in-Residence of UJA-Federation of New York and was the founder of Rabbis Against Gun Violence. Named by Newsweek as one of the 50 most influential rabbis in America, he is an acclaimed author, musician, teacher and activist who has worked to amplify the prophetic Jewish voice in the world. His books include "Peace in Our Cities: Rabbis Against Gun Violence", "The Hope: American Jewish Voices in Support of Israel", "Fierce Feelings: Poems", "Siddur Tov LeHodot: A Transliterated Shabbat Prayerbook", and "When We Turned Within." He and his wife Neshama Carlebach live in New York, where they are raising their five children.

Shabbat Services Topic: "Proximity & Power: The Difficulty Being an Effective Problem-Solver from a Distance"

Temple Israel Brotherhood 12th Annual Robert Zeitsiff Scholar in Residence Weekend

Our Scholar in Residence: Rabbi Menachem Creditor

Menachem Creditor served as Assistant Rabbi at Temple Israel from 2002 to 2007 and as Rabbi of Congregation Netivot Shalom in Berkeley, California from 2007 to 2018. In 2018 he was named Pearl and Ira Meyer Scholar-in-Residence of UJA-Federation of New York and was the founder of Rabbis Against Gun Violence. Named by Newsweek as one of the 50 most influential rabbis in America, he is an acclaimed author, musician, teacher and activist who has worked to amplify the prophetic Jewish voice in the world. His books include "Peace in Our Cities: Rabbis Against Gun Violence", "The Hope: American Jewish Voices in Support of Israel", "Fierce Feelings: Poems", "Siddur Tov LeHodot: A Transliterated Shabbat Prayerbook", and "When We Turned Within." He and his wife Neshama Carlebach live in New York, where they are raising their five children.

Saturday February. 18th & Sunday February 19th, 2023

Friday: TI Mishpacha Minyan

- Rabbi Creditor Leads Kabbalat Shabbat & Short D'var
- All are welcome to the service – dinner by reservation at:
<https://www.tisharon.org/event/mishpacha-minyan-jan.html>

Saturday:

- Shabbat Services D'var
- Special Concert Saturday Night!

Sunday:

- 10am Scholar in Residence Breakfast Talk

Shabbat Services Topic: "Proximity & Power: The Difficulty Being an Effective Problem-Solver from a Distance"

Sunday Morning Breakfast Topic: "Fault Lines: Exploring the Complicated Place of Progressive American Jewish Zionism"

RSVP for Sunday breakfast talk, more information & sponsorship/donation opportunities at www.tisharon.org/event/brotherhood-shabbat