

Temple Israel of Natick, Massachusetts

Michael Herzberg
April 17, 2020 · 🌐

Commemorate Yom HaShoah Holocaust Remembrance Day by lighting your Yellow Candle this Monday night April 20th.

This year, personalize your observance by lighting your candle in honor of the child on the card included in the Yellow Candle box distributed by our Men's Club.

Also:

- Show your candle online at the MetroWest Yom HaShoah Holocaust Remembrance Day Commemoration, Monday, April 20, at 7:30 PM. Irene Stern Frielich will present: "Shattered Stars: My Father's Story." RSVP required, details in the weekly Temple Constant Contact email.
- Recite the meditations or Martyrology Kaddish included with your candle (also available on pages 8 – 9 at https://www.fjmc.org/.../2020\_yc\_guide\_final\_191029.pdf).
- Raise awareness by sharing your Yellow Candle lighting stories and photos here in Facebook and on Twitter #yellowcandle

A small candle can make a large statement

FJMC Shoah Yellow Candles

You, Dubi Gordon and 6 others

Temple Israel of Natick, Massachusetts

Write a comment...

David Tursky
Admin · April 20, 2020 · 🌐

Tonight we lit this candle to honor the memory of Izya Lagron of Vinnitsa who was killed in the Holocaust in 1942 at 8 years old.

I am lighting this Yellow Candle in memory of
IZYA LAGRON
of VINNITSA
who perished at VINNITSA
in 1942, aged 8

You, Jake Barth, Andrew Blume and 14 others 1 Comment

Like Comment

We had 10 posts of members' lit candles on the Temple Israel FaceBook group page

