

and bring your memorabilia to services. Please contact Honey Sue Springut (860-302-3484 or DVASHS@comcast.net) by Friday, October 25. No RSVP is required to attend services or the luncheon. Questions? E-mail ChaiSociety@bethelwh.org.

Introduction to Ethics with Rabbi Jim Rosen
Monday, November 11, 6:30-7:30pm

Rabbi Rosen will teach an introductory course on ethics. Stay tuned for details on this three-week session! (Additional sessions: November 18th & 25th)

Axe Throwing with Men's Club
Thursday, November 14, 7:45pm

Please join us for a fun evening enjoying the latest craze – Axe Throwing, a (non-)sport in which the competitor throws an axe at a target, attempting to hit the bull's eye! It is often compared to dart throwing, except with an axe! With 7 pits, 8000 square feet and a brand new Street Curling pit, Montana Nights is the largest axe-throwing facility in New England. We will be providing refreshments; beer and wine available for purchase. Cost: $25 RSVP by 11/7 to David Finitsis (860-790-7195 or davidjfinitsis@gmail.com).

Temple Trivia Throwdown
Saturday, November 16, 8pm

Back by popular demand -- this event sold out last time! Featuring Rob Guilmette, professional trivia master and DJ! Beth El members are welcome to invite non-members to join their teams. Tickets are $25 per person and include beer, wine and other drinks, snacks and desserts, and live entertainment. To secure your seat with early-bird pricing of $25/person, register online by November 1st at 2:30pm.