Featuring Comedian Brad Zimmerman

Best Known for "My Son The Waiter: A Jewish Tragedy"

Writer/director/comedian Brad Zimmerman started out opening for legends Joan Rivers and George Carlin – Rivers once called him "the best comic... in his price range." A favorite TV role was playing Johnny Sacks' lawyer in the HBO classic series The Sopranos. His one-man show, "My Son The Waiter, A Jewish Tragedy" opened Off-Broadway in New York in 2014 and has had numerous national tours. Check him out at www.bradzcomedy.com!

Free dinner & show for all paid-up Brotherhood members!
Additional dinner & show tickets only $30 for spouses or family members!

Pay your $36 Brotherhood dues at the door or online in advance at www.tisharon.org/brotherhood
